

The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26. 1739.

No. 1250.

HERE having been lately publish'd and dispers'd gratis throughout the Kingdom, a most false, impudent, and wicked Libel, Intituled, ' A List of the Members of the House of Commons, who voted for and against the late Convention with Spain,' in Two Sheets of Paper, it is very proper the People of Great Britain should be made sensible how notoriously the Author or Authors of that Libel endeavour to impose upon them.

At the Foot of the List the Number of the Voters, and of those who are in Employment, stands thus:

The Pro's	262
The Contra's	234
Absent	62
	558

Number of Employments 234
Annual Value 212956*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*

THE Number of Employments is here set down in the Lists to be 234; no Distinction is made, that of those 234 Persons, who are here represented as being Employments with Salaries annex'd to them, 16 were absent, and 18 voted against the Convention. By avoiding to do this, the Authors of this false and scandalous List could not but be sensible, that the generality of those who shall see this List will conclude from the summing up the Numbers in this Manner, That of the 262, who voted for the Convention, 14 were actually possess'd of Employments with Salaries annexed to them.

THIS is One most shameful Imposition upon the Publick.

ANOTHER is,— That the Number of Employments with Salaries annex'd to them are represented to be 234; that is, it is here represented as if there were actually in the present House of Commons 234 Members, who are possess'd of Employments with Salaries annex'd to them; whereas, by their own List it appears, that the Number of such Employments are in Truth 167.

AND of this Number 167, as I observed before, 16 were absent, and 18 voted against the Convention; so that of the 262, who voted for the Convention, 133, and no more, were possess'd of Employments, with Salaries annexed to them.

AND yet these are the Men, who have the Modesty, in the Preamble to their List, to declare, ' That the Publick having been impor'd upon by several very imperfect and erroneous Lists, it has been thought proper to do that Justice to the Gentlemen on both Sides they deserve, by giving a more exact one.'

As to the Queries annex'd to this List, the Authors of them cannot but know, that as they have often been put before, so they have as often receiv'd full Answer, to which they never thought fit to reply.

THE Truth, with respect to the Complaint of influence, is plainly this.— That, with the very same Force and Reason that it is objected to Persons in Employment, that they are influenced to vote against the Conviction of their own Minds, for the sake of those Employments, it may and ought to be objected to those who are out of Employment, that they are likewise influenced to vote against the Sense and Conviction of their Minds, because they have no Employment.

AND for either Party to take upon them to judge of the Hearts or inward Persuasion of those who differ from them, and upon what Motive they act; this is the Height of Absurdity, Cruelty, and Injustice.

This is certain,— That, if we look back to the Time of the Revolution, or of King James's leaving the Kingdom, to this Day, there has not been One memorable Debate wherein the professed Jacobites and Papists have not openly espoused one Side of the Question.

AND, without pretending to judge of the Hearts or the Integrity of any Man, or Party of Men, I shall ever think,— That there cannot be a more certain and infallible Proof of any Man, or Party of Men, acting (I will not say, contrary to the Conviction of their own Minds, but) in direct Opposition to the true Interest of their Country, than their acting in Conjunction with the avowed Principles and Opinions of the whole Body of professed Jacobites and Papists.

THIS is and ought to be the only sure Guide to the Nation for their Conduct in all future Elections.

I HAVE that equitable Opinion of both Parties, as to be firmly persuaded, from the whole Tenour of their Conduct since the Resolution, that they both act from Principle, and not from any visible or invisible Influence.

THIS has been so fully and unanswerably stated and proved in the Gazetteer of April 21. 1739 from History and from Facts, that I defy any Man to give an Answer to it.

THE Authors of the List before us have put One very extraordinary Query among the rest, viz. ' Whether certain Gentlemen could, by any other Method than withdrawing from Debate, have apprized their Constituents of their Despair of serving them by farther Attendance ? '

In Answer to which I shall take the Liberty to return them this short Query, and leave the impartial World to judge of the true Cause of those Gentlemen Withdrawning from Debate.

Whether this unparalleled and unprecedented Method of Withdrawning from Debate, at this critical Conjuncture, was not evidently done with this single View, To apprise the Enemies of Great Britain, that our Divisions were carried to a greater Height than ever was known before; and, by this base and wicked Artifice, to bring the Nation into Contempt, and prevent Spain from coming to any Agreement with us?

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

I HAVE lately read with much Pleasure the excellent Order of the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Wilts; and desire you to give it a Place in your Gazetteer, that the Publick may receive the like Pleasure: Which will oblige

WHEREAS, his Majesty has been graciously pleased to express his early Care of his People, in declaring his pious Concern for the Honour of God, the Advancement of Religion, and a general Reformation of Manners, by a gracious Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for preventing and punishing of Vice, Prophaneness and Immorality; thereby commanding all the Laws against the Neglect of the Worship and Service of God on the Lord's-Day, Blasphemy, Prophane-Swearing, Lewdness, Bawdy-houses, Publick Gaming-houses, and other disorderly Houses, and all dissolute, immoral, and disorderly Practices, to be put in Execution.

We therefore his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County in Quarter-Sessions assembled, do, in Obedience to the said Proclamation, and in Pursuance of our Duty, unanimously resolve, that we will put in the strictest Execution all the Laws against all Persons, who shall be guilty of the Neglect of the Worship of God on the Lord's-Day, Blasphemy, Pro-phane Swearing and Cursing, Prophanation of the Lord's-Day, Lewdness, frequenting Bawdy-houses, or other disorderly Houses, or any dissolute, immoral, and disorderly Practices; and against all Officers and other Persons, that, contrary to their Duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said Laws in Execution. And we do hereby order and strictly require all High-constables, Petty-constables, and all other Officers, to be very diligent in making Search after such as shall offend in any of the Cases before-mentioned; and to bring all such as they shall find so offending before Some or One of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for this County, that they may be dealt with according to Law: And we will proceed with the utmost Severity of Law against such Officers as are negligent and remiss in their Office.

AND to the end that all Persons may take notice of this our Order, it is further ordered by this Court, that the Clerk of the Peace for this County do forthwith cause a sufficient Number of this our Order to be printed, and to send a competent Number of them to the High-constables, who are hereby required to cause some of them to be affixed upon the Church-doors of each Parish within this County; and likewise to send some of the same to the Petty-constables, Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor of the respective Parishes; which said Officers are hereby charged and commanded to go to each Publick-house in their respective Parishes, and give the Keepers of every such Publick-house Notice of this our Order.

Considerations on Marriage, tending to prove the Necessity of Divorces in some Cases, which the Law doth not allow. Price 2 s.

WHEREAS John Court, late Servant of

Assistant to the Under-cook of Merton College Oxford, went, or is supposed to be convey'd away, from Merton in the County of Oxford, on Sunday the Thirteenth Day of May last, so that the said Court hath not been heard of since the Death of George Griffin, late Servant to the Master of the Church of Merton College, which George Griffin is supposed to have been murdered by the said Court on Sunday the Twelfth Day of May last: These are to give Notice that if the said Person who convey'd the said Court away, or any other Person whatsoever, will give an Account of the said Court to Mr. Edward Clarke, an Attorney at Law, at his Office in Bedford-street near Bedford-row, London, or to the Warden or Bursar of Merton College aforesaid, so that the said Court may be apprehended and brought to Justice, the Person for his Reward shall receive Ten Guineas from the Hands either of the said Mr. Clarke, or of the Warden or Bursar of the College aforesaid, who have agreed to the Production of the said Court, so far as that he be brought to a Trial for the supposed Murder of the said George Griffin.

The said John Court is a well-built young Fellow, about Eighteen Years of Age, about Five Foot Six Inches high, a fresh Complexion, and wears his own fair Hair, hath a fine Scar on his Forehead, and is very hairy on the Back of his Hands and Wrists, used to wear a dark Fustian Frock with Lining, and a Cloth-colour Leather Pair of breeches, sometimes a dark-coloured Cloth Suit of Cloaths with a Sleeve and Brass Mettle Buttons, and Silver Buckles to his Shoes.

These are to Certify whom it may concern, THAT the Two Medicines for external Use, which have been sold with so much success for the Good of Mankind above Thirty Years last past, are to be had at the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Broad Street and Poultry, at 5s. the Parcel, with printed Directions for their proper use.

All Sorts of RUPTURES, BURSTEN, BROKEN BELLIES.

are removed from the Minories, where they have been sold by the Author, so long, and are now sold only at Mr. Sandwell's Toyshop, the Sign of the Griffin, the Corner of Broad Street and Poultry, at 5s. the Parcel, with printed Directions given with them.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation than themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, having their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained the Reputation they so justly deserve, both in City and Country after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a small Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient, one Parcel is generally sufficient for a compleat Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured, them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of Cures of Persons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months old, grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but the Authors are naturally averse to let it be known, that they ever had such an Infirmitie: Yet Mr. Sandwell can satisfy any Inquirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he never had such large Knowledge, by reason of the short Time he has sold 'em, as they from whom the Medicines are got, good Reasons, removed.

No Letters received except Post paid.
